IMPORTANT INFORMATION AND CLIENT CONSENT

Please read and sign at the end stating you have fully read and understand the information below.

COUNSELOR

I am an LPC-S (Licensed Professional Counselor Supervisor) and a LMFT-S (Licensed Marriage Family Therapist Supervisor). I have met the requirements by the State of Texas under the occupations code, chapter 503 that allows them to provide individual, couples, family and group services. My approach is an empathetic talk therapy approach that incorporates multiple therapeutic interventions such as Family Systems, Marital (if married), Contextual, Cognitive/Behavioral, Solution Focused, Emotion Focused and Restoration Therapy Models. Additionally, I will seek to incorporate the faith of the clients along with aspects of spiritual formation such as prayer, bible study, worship, service, small groups, etc. into the therapeutic interventions if you desire.

CONFIDENTIALITY

I follow all ethical standards prescribed by state and federal law. I am required by practice guidelines and standards to keep clinical records. These records and the information you share are carefully guarded with the exceptions noted in my "Notice to Privacy Practices" provided to you. However, it is Texas law that all I have a duty to warn and protect the appropriate individuals if the counselee intends to take harmful, dangerous, or criminal actions against themselves or someone around them. Possible exceptions to the confidentiality include but are not limited to the following situations: I am mandated to report any suicide attempts incidences of "reasonably suspected child abuse" (physical or sexual), elderly or disabled abuse, abuse of patients in mental health facilities, sexual exploitation, AIDS/HIV infection and possible transmission, criminal prosecutions, child custody cases, suites in which the mental health of a party is an issue to the Department of Social Services and/or the Police Department. Situations where I have a duty to disclose, or where in my judgment, it is necessary to warn or disclose are: fee disputes between myself and the Client, a negligence suit brought by the client against the therapist, of the filing of a complaint with the licensing or certifying board. I may occasionally find it helpful to consult about a case with other professionals and if this should arise, your identity will not be revealed. In addition to your confidentiality being important to me, and I am ethically bound to keep the information confidential. If you should meet a member of our staff and/or therapist in public, please know they will not acknowledge you unless you initiate contact. It is preferred that you decide whether to disclose your acquaintance to others.

CONFIDENTIALITY OF ALL ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS

Please know I will maintain your confidentiality to the best of their ability; however, we cannot guarantee this with any electronic communication. This includes but is not limited to the following: Email, Skype (or any other face time service), chat, texting, mobile devices, cell phones or fax. If electronic communication is disrupted, please call your therapist at 806-350-5862.

RELEASE OF INFORMATION

If information needs to be released it will only be done according to state law and with a written consent from the client indicating an informed consent of such release. In the case of marital therapy, the client is the couple, not individuals; therefore, all records can only be released when both parties' consent in writing or if mandated by the court.

APPOINTMENTS

Subsequent appointments are scheduled with me during your session. Upcoming appointment reminders are available with your permission; however, it is your responsibility to keep or cancel the session(s). A 24 hour advanced notice for cancellations (non-emergency situations) is required to avoid a session fee. You (not your insurance company) will be charged $140.00.

Due to our confidentiality policy, excluding minors, we are unable to schedule, confirm, adjust or cancel an appointment from anyone other than the client being seen unless a signed release is on file. If you and your spouse/partner are being seen together for the indicated session, it is acceptable for one party to schedule, confirm, adjust or cancel an appointment. However, we will not notify the spouse/partner of the appointment change. In the event of a family or medical emergency a note will be made on the account without disclosing information to a third party or family member unless a release is on file.

FEE SCHEDULE

Initial Evaluation (1st Visit): $175.00

Regular Office Visit (50 minutes): 150.00

Group Sessions (90 minutes): $60.00

In some cases, treatment may qualify you for your health insurance to reimbursement for services. If you wish to file your health insurance for therapy costs, please contact my Office Administrator Deana at 806-350-3133 so the benefit level may be established. Your insurance company will require a mental health diagnosis be placed on your health record at the time we file on your policy. Please feel free to address your concerns or questions with me. Full payment is required until insurance information is established.

INCAPACITY OR DEATH

In the event of my incapacitation or death, it will be necessary to assign your case to another therapist and for that therapist to have possession of your treatment records. If you would like your records sent elsewhere, a separate release will need to be signed.

AVAILABILITY

In the event you encounter a personal emergency which will require prompt attention, my office will make every effort to accommodate and appointment. If your emergency arises after hours or on the weekend, clients are encouraged to contact a family member, call the Crisis Line at 806-359-6699, Family Support Services at 806-342-2500, call 911, or go directly to the nearest emergency department.

DUAL RELATIONSHIPS & SOCIAL NETWORKING

Not all dual relationships are unethical or avoidable. However, dual relationship situations might impair my objectivity, clinical judgment, or therapeutic effectiveness, thus will not be encouraged. Please be aware that my social networking sites are utilized as a “blog” and not intended to replace personal counseling sessions. Regarding my personal social networking sites, I will not to accept your invitation in the interest in protecting your privacy.

MINORS

Minors must have parental consent for counseling with the exception that the client: is 16 years of age or older and resides apart from the parents/guardians and manages his/her own financial affairs; is thinking about suicide; has concerns about alcohol or drug addiction/dependency; or is being sexually, physically, or emotionally abused. Consenting parents have the right to examine the treatment records of children under the age of 18; however, in order that minors may have the trust of a protected environment, it is my practice to ask parents to forego that right (they are willing to discuss progress with the parent/guardian) with the exception of extreme circumstances (see confidentiality above). At the termination of treatment and upon request, I will provide the parent(s)/guardian(s) with a summary of treatment. It is important to note that in the state of Texas children under 17 may not have consensual sex (by law it is considered indecency with a child and therefore "child abuse") and the state requires me to breach confidentiality and report such activity to Child Protective Services. If I am required to make such a report to CPS about your child, you will be informed as well.

RISKS & BENEFITS

It is agreed that the client shall make a good-faith effort at personal growth and engage in the counseling process as an important priority at this time in his/her life. Therapy is designed to assist clients in resolving issues and dealing with painful life problems. Your therapist will make every effort to make therapy successful in this manner; however, you should know that therapy is no guarantee that you will "solve" your problems and that issues will be resolved. Furthermore, please be aware, that through the course of therapy, we may expose issues that may cause additional problems to you and bring more life distress. Participation in therapy means that you accept these risks and are willing to deal with the potential problems. Suspension, termination, or referral shall be discussed for lack of commitment or for any unresolved conflict or impasse between therapist and client as soon as possible.
